The spin-aligned coupling scheme: Isoscalar pair correlations vs. isoscalar interaction

S. Frauendorf

The interpretation of rotational spectra in N=Z nuclei around A=92 in terms of correlated spin-aligned isoscalar pairs is confronted with the alternative of antimagnetic rotation. The ambivalence of interpreting a small system of valence holes is discussed.